General Secretary's Message

As you aware that our journey of VISION 2026 (second phase of VISION 2016) has been initiated as envisaged by our beloved and farsighted leaders, the Human Welfare Foundation has taken steps to achieve its goals in an efficient manner. Indeed, our efforts and thinking for deprived section of the society is most apt, timely and contemporary.

For more than ten years, Human Welfare Foundation has been providing humanitarian assistance to help the poor and needy to lead sustainable, self-reliant lives within safe and caring communities. Our work is guided and shaped by the core values of accountability, humanitarianism, neutrality and impartiality, inclusiveness, integrity and cooperation, all of which are also integral to our faith.

The team behind Vision 2026 has shaped a comprehensive plan that includes education, health, basic necessities, livelihood, orphan care, civil rights protection, disaster management, village development etc. We have implemented some highly successful projects in different fields with the cooperation of national and international organizations. A major focus of Vision 2026 is in the field of education and the development of the villages. In the domain of village development, Vision 2026 has planned to adopt 101 villages under the project of 'Gramin Dosti' in the next five years aiming at their basic development up to the national average. VISION 2026 has also initiated Nagrik Vikas Kendra, a new wing for the promotion of government welfare schemes across the country. Our experiences in the field of educational activities have stimulated us to intervene among the children from slums and remote villages. It facilitates their access to the formal schooling system through the project titled "Community Learning Centre"(CLC).

The decision of demonetization was in fact a huge blow on the lives of the weaker sections of the society. The foundation in this midst has survived this situation. The development of any society should also depend on initiatives from the society themselves which in turn can benefit the whole nation. The Foundation has followed this method in its activities. Vision has completed its 10-year time span which envisaged the establishment of multifarious institutions across the country with strong human resources of committed volunteers and notable community leaders. We are striving to alleviate human sufferings and bring real improvement in the quality of their lives.

We hope that this report will convey the vitality of the communities we serve including the Muslim society in India. I strongly believe that the time has come to determine for the next season the important factors for planning in the next phase, mainly by reflecting on our experiences from the past.

The support of the generous individuals and groups is necessary for the success of VISION 2026. Let us together create partnership with the needy.

Once again I thank you all for your generous support in our endeavours.

T. ArifAli
General Secretary

EDUCATION

Education provides the key for a better future, helping people to increase their skills, fulfill their potential and pursue their goals. But millions of children across India are denied even basic education. We aim to provide impoverished communities with access to education or training, which offers them a way out of poverty. By working directly with local communities, we ensure that our educational projects are relevant to their needs.

We believe that access to education is not just a basic human right, but a key factor in reducing child labor and poverty. In HWF, we strive to bring the un-enrolled children back to school seats, we build and reconstruct schools and educational facilities and ensure to create a healthy teaching environment.

Under Vision 2026, HWF is carrying out the following activities for the educational empowerment of the society:

ORPHAN CARE

While looking at our surroundings, we can witness that the orphaned children are the most vulnerable part of our society. They are often left in the care of elderly relatives, who do not have the ability to support them with their meager income. Consequently these orphans receive no education and are driven into work at a very early age, while missing out a genuine childhood and education. This obviously affects them for the rest of their lives and they are left behind the achievements of social standards.

Orphan Care Program of Human Welfare Foundation is designed to address the needs of orphans and improve their living standards, in a way that respects and preserves the customs and traditions of the communities in which they reside. Through Orphan Care Program we not only assist orphans and needy children, but also support the communities in which they live.

ECONOMIC EMPOWERMENT

India is the fastest growing major economy in the world today. Despite this fact, one in every five Indians is poor. 22 percent of the population or 270 million people are living below the poverty line. Muslims, the largest minority community, who make up 14.2% of India's 1.25 billion population, come out pretty much at the bottom of most socio-economic indices.

HWF's Vision 2026 addresses the root-causes of poverty through long-term solutions and believes in promoting sustainable livelihoods. It believes that sustainable livelihood is a way of earning a living that empowers people to become self-sufficient and less reliant on humanitarian aid. HWF works hard to empower the rural population through technical training and self employment projects.

VOCATIONAL TRAINING CENTRES

HWF establishes Vocational Training Centres (VTC) and Skill Development Centres (SDC) to provide short-time job-oriented courses. These courses are formulated to make the youth capable of getting job opportunities at various fields. Currently, HWF runs 8 training centres by offering courses such as Auxiliary Nursing Midwifery (ANM), Computer Training and Tailoring Training for around 250 students.

SELF EMPLOYMENT PROGRAM

In order to empower the rural population, HWF conducts self-employment programs at various places. HWF provided necessary facilities to 229 poor persons to earn their income through Sewing Machines, Cycle Rickshaws and Wheel Carts.

WOMEN EMPOWERMENT

Women make up two-thirds of all non-literates in the world and obviously, they are not achieving any considerable proportion in the higher education across the globe. At the same time, supporting women in the developing countries is vital to help the families to overcome critical social issues such as poverty and unemployment.

By empowering women and giving them access to opportunities in the fields of education, employment and health care, the whole society will get benefits. By supporting women to achieve new heights, we can control cycle of poverty and infant mortality rate. Educating female child would ensure more equitable tomorrows.

In India, women are born into a society that creates barriers of social inequalities. HWF aims to assist in women empowerment through various educational, healthcare and income initiatives and to empower rural women by educating them in order to access the opportunities available to them.

One of the key goals of the Human Welfare Foundation is the empowerment of women from poor and marginalised sections of the society. Almost 50 per cent of the beneficiaries of the HWF activities are women. Around half of the scholarship fund goes to female students. We organise following programs:

- | Guidance and Counseling

GRAMEEN DOSTI VILLAGE DEVELOPMENT PROJECT

Under Grameen Dosti Village Development Project, efforts are being made to improve the Socio-Economic condition of residents of the selected villages with better accessibility to health, education and livelihood. 68.9% of India's population lives in rural areas. Though this number is expected to fall in the coming years, it is still estimated that more than half of our population would be rural even in 2050. Despite there being several initiatives by governments at all levels, the level of improvement has not kept pace with the rising aspirations. On most of the development parameters, there is still a significant gap between rural and urban India. One reason for the failure of rural development schemes has been the lack of a holistic focus on the village as a unit. Separate flagship schemes targeting different sectors such as health (National Rural Health Mission), education (Sarva Shiksha Abhiyan) and livelihood (National Rural Employment Guarantee Act, National Rural Livelihood Mission) have been launched in the past, but met with limited success.

After the release of the Sachar Committee report, we have realized the inadequate performance of government schemes in the field of village empowerment, in order to tackle this huge challenge, HWF has planned to cover more than 100 villages across the Northern India under its flagship program VISION 2026. During the year 2018-19, a total number of 27 villages were selected under this project. Basic surveys have been completed and the project started in 22 villages.

YOUR CONTRIBUTION...

The generosity and kindness of individuals, groups or organisations have allowed Human Welfare Foundation (HWF) to deliver life changing programs for during recent past. Thousands of people like you, who persevere day in and day out as volunteers and partners of this humane venture, form its backbone, putting in a lot of efforts and time to turn this dream into reality.

We take this opportunity to acknowledge and appreciate the value of your treasured support. The poor who cannot afford a set of clothes, the countless starving sisters forced to sell their honour for a few crumbs, parents too indigent to pay for the legal fights for their unjustly incarcerated children, and millions of kids so far denied a chance for education - all these look up to the generous people like you - with desperate hope. If we can leave aside a small portion of any extravagances on weddings, dinner parties, entertainments and the like, it will mean a lot for them: one meal for the hungry, a pair of clothes for the needy, a scholarship for a child.

The destitute need your support in cash and kind and you are capable enough to support the noble cause of catering to their needs. We expect your helping hands forever in future so that the dark present of those people can be lightened in near future. It's only people like you who make us confident enough to proceed with new initiatives.
